

Telephone and in-person counseling is available for cancerChamps, members of the family and friends. It is usually developed as a caring and sharing sessions that promotes understanding and confidence.