

Support Group Sessions are convened on a regular basis for the cancerChamps and their carers. Open discussions are facilitated. Difficulties, anxieties and the successes relating to coping with these are shared with others who are in similar predicament. A trouble shared as trouble halved. Under the guidance of the Support Group Facilitator, the cancerChamps recoup their zest for good recovery. The programmer fosters the need to instill quality living, despite cancer. Various activities are organized to enhance this.